The Board of Executive Officers' Statement of Responsibility

The Board of Executive Officers of the Company is responsible for preparing the financial statements for the Third Quarter, which give a true and fair view of the financial position of the Company and its financial performance, and its cash flows during the accounting period. In preparing these financial statements, the Board of Executive Officers is required to:

- Select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently;
- Make judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- State whether applicable accounting principles have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- design and implement an effective internal control system for the purpose of properly preparing and presenting the financial statements so as to minimize errors and frauds;
- Prepare the financial statements on a going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The Board of Executive Officers is responsible for ensuring that proper accounting records are kept, which disclose, with reasonable accuracy at any time, the financial position of the company and that the financial statements comply with Vietnamese Accounting Standards, the Vietnamese Accounting System, and legal regulations relating to financial reporting. The Board of Executive Officers is also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The Board of Executive Officers confirms that the Company has complied with the above requirements in preparing these interim financial statements.

For and on behalf of the Board of Executive Officers,

Nguyễn Dinh Dung
Chief Executive Officer

These notes are an integral part of the financial statements and should be read in conjunction with the accompanying financial reports.

2. ACCOUNTING CONVENTION AND ACCOUNTING PERIOD

Accounting convention

The accompanying financial statements are presented in Vietnamese Dong (VND), based on the historical cost principle and in accordance with Vietnamese Accounting Standards, the Vietnamese Accounting System issued under Circular No. 200/TT- BTC dated 22 December 2014, by the Ministry of Finance, and other current guiding and supplementary documents on accounting in Vietnam. The Company's financial statements are prepared by horizontally aggregating the indicators on the financial statements of the Company's headquarters and its units and enterprises after eliminating internal receivables, payables, and internal transfers between the headquarters and its units and enterprises.

Form of Accounting Records: General journal method.

Accounting Period

The Company's accounting period begins on 1 January and ends on 31 December of each year.

3. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The following are the key accounting policies applied by the Company in preparing the financial statements:

Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in compliance with Vietnamese Accounting Standards, the Vietnamese Accounting System, and relevant legal regulations on the preparation and presentation of financial statements requires the Board of Directors to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of liabilities, assets, and the disclosure of contingent liabilities and assets as of the financial statement date, as well as the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the financial year. Actual business results may differ from the estimates and assumptions made.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash includes cash on hand, demand deposits, gold, silver, precious metals, gemstones, and cash in transit. Cash equivalents are short-term investments with a maturity period or redemption period not exceeding three months, which can be easily converted into a predetermined amount of cash and bear no risk of conversion into cash from the date of purchase of the investment to the reporting date.

Provision for Doubtful Debts

The provision for doubtful debts is made in accordance with current accounting regulations and Circular No. 48/2019/TT- BTC dated 8 August 2019, issued by the Ministry of Finance. Accordingly, the Company is allowed to make provisions for doubtful debts for overdue receivables or receivables that are due but may not be collectible due to the debtor's inability to pay.

Inventories

Inventories are valued at the lower of cost and net realizable value. The cost of inventories includes purchase costs, processing costs, and other directly related costs incurred to bring the inventories to their current location and condition. The cost of inventories is determined using the weighted average method. Net realizable value is calculated as the estimated selling price of the inventories in the ordinary course of business, less the estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

Inventories Accounting

Inventories are accounted for using the perpetual inventory method. However, certain items stored outside warehouses, which are difficult to count, are accounted for using the periodic inventory method.

Work-in-Progress Costs

Work-in-progress costs include expenses incurred for production and business activities that are not yet completed at the end of the reporting period. Work-in-progress costs primarily include raw materials and clinker. The quantity of unfinished products is determined based on the end-of-period inventory count, and the value of work-in-progress is calculated by adding the costs incurred to the opening balance of work-in-progress, dividing by the total production quantity and the opening balance quantity, and then multiplying by the closing balance quantity of work-in-progress.

Product Costing Method

The cost of cement products is determined using the step-by-step costing method, which includes the cost of semi-finished products.

The provision for inventory devaluation is made in accordance with current accounting regulations.

Tangible Fixed Assets and Depreciation

Tangible fixed assets are presented at cost less accumulated depreciation.

The cost of tangible fixed assets includes the purchase price and all other directly related costs incurred to bring the asset to a ready-for-use condition.

The cost of tangible fixed assets that are self-constructed or self-manufactured includes actual construction costs, actual production costs incurred, as well as installation and trial run costs.

Tangible fixed assets are depreciated using the straight-line method over their estimated useful lives in accordance with the regulations set out in Circular No. 45/2013/TT-BTC issued by the Ministry of Finance on the management, use, and depreciation of fixed assets. The specific depreciation periods for each type of asset are as follows:

	Years
Buildings and structures	5 – 50
Machinery and equipment	3 – 20
Transportation vehicles	6 – 10
Management tools and equipment	3 – 10

Intangible Fixed Assets and Amortization

Intangible fixed assets are presented at cost less accumulated amortization and represent the value of management software programs. These assets are amortized using the straight-line method over a period of 4 years.

Construction in Progress

Assets under construction for production, rental, administration, or any other purposes are recorded at cost. This cost includes expenses related to construction investment and borrowing costs incurred during the construction period, in compliance with Vietnamese Accounting Standards. Depreciation of assets formed from such construction investment is applied similarly to other assets, starting when the asset is ready for use.

Long-term Prepaid Expenses

Long-term prepaid expenses include major repair expenses allocated over time, allocated consumable material costs, property insurance, fire insurance, other risk insurance, and other long-term prepaid expenses deemed to bring future economic benefits to the company for a period of one year or more. These expenses are capitalized as long-term prepaid expenses and allocated to the Income Statement.

Revenue Recognition

Revenue is recognized when the transaction's outcome can be reliably measured, and the Company is likely to obtain economic benefits from the transaction. Sales revenue is recognized when goods are delivered, and ownership is transferred to the buyer. Service revenue is recognized when there is evidence of the percentage of service completion as of the end of the accounting period. Interest income is recognized based on the balance of deposit accounts, the applicable interest rate, and notifications from the bank.

Form B 09a - DN

These notes are an integral part of the financial statements and should be read in conjunction with the accompanying financial reports.

Foreign Currency

Transactions in foreign currencies are converted at the exchange rate on the transaction date. Exchange rate differences arising from these transactions are recorded in the Income Statement. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies at the end of the accounting period are converted at the exchange rate on that date. Exchange rate differences arising from the revaluation of monetary items, receivables, and payables are recorded in the Income Statement for the year, in accordance with Vietnamese Accounting Standard No. 10 – "Effects of Changes in Foreign Exchange Rates."

Borrowing Costs

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction, or production of assets that require a substantial period of time to be ready for use or sale are capitalized into the cost of the asset until the asset is ready for use or sale. Any income generated from the temporary investment of borrowed funds is deducted from the cost of the related asset. Other borrowing costs are recognized in the Income Statement when incurred.

Taxation

Current tax liabilities are calculated based on taxable income for the year. Taxable income differs from net profit as presented in the Income Statement because taxable income excludes revenues or expenses taxable or deductible in different years (including any carried-forward losses, if applicable) and excludes non-taxable or non-deductible items.

The determination of corporate income tax (CIT) payable by the Company is based on prevailing tax regulations. The Company is eligible for a 50% reduction in CIT.

Deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities are determined based on the tax rates expected to apply in the financial period when the asset is recovered or the liability is settled, following the tax rates and tax laws effective as of the end of the interim accounting period.

Other taxes are applied in accordance with the prevailing tax laws in Vietnam.
